

Environmental justice and drinking water

2012:

California recognizes a human right to “safe, clean, affordable, and accessible” drinking water (AB685).

2017:

~300 systems across the state lack access to safe drinking water. Disadvantaged communities are disproportionately affected and at risk.

